Report on the One day Workshop on Preparation of Dissertation:

Faculty of Commerce has organised one day workshop on preparation of dissertation for the B.Com 6th sem students on 1st March, 2023 in the Smart Classroom-207. Dr. Archana Bhattacharjya, Assistant Professor, Faculty of Commerce has convened the programme. The session started at 10 am with an inaugural speech by Dr. Amrit Paul, Assistant Professor, Faculty of Commerce, and explained in brief the purpose of the workshop and its benefits to the students. All the faculty members were also present at the time of inauguration. The session was carried on by our esteemed resource person, Dr. Bhabananda Debnath, Assistant Professor of the Faculty of Commerce for 3 hours from 10 am to 12 noon. He explained in details starting from how to choose an appropriate topic, title, setting the objectives, need of the study, review of literatures, methodology, analysis and interpretation, findings and referencing. Around 280 students participated.

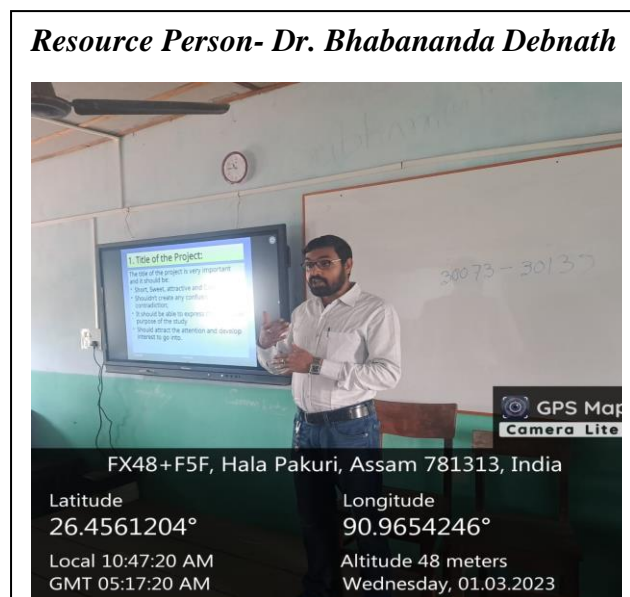

The basic purpose of the workshop is to give a practical overview of every steps in preparing a dissertation. Since, B.Com 6th sem students have one paper on Project preparation in their syllabus. At the end of the session there was an interactive period with the students and it was found that majority of the students were clear about the steps in dissertation preparation.
